THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA | WINTER EDITION 2021

Delta Chi Nationals announces a return to campus in spring of 2022 story

Dear Brothers,

The Tucson Delta Chi Alumni Board (TDCAB) is pleased to provide this newsletter to our fellow Arizona Delta Chi brothers. We hope you find this edition informative as you learn about the status of our chapter and reminisce about the amazing brotherhood that connects all of us.

Since 1925 the Arizona Chapter of Delta Chi has initiated over 1,700 brothers. This remarkable legacy is set to continue as Delta Chi will be returning to the University of Arizona in Spring 2022. We are excited to build upon the tremendous legacy that each of us are a part of and support these efforts in any way possible.

Representatives from Delta Chi headquarters will be in Tucson beginning January 2022 to recruit a group of young men to serve as the group of re-Founding Fathers and re-establish a colony of Arizona Delta Chi. This group will go through a chartering process in which they must satisfy a list of objective standards to successfully receive the Charter.

While Delta Chi Nationals will lead and support this process, we as Arizona alumni are essential in supporting its success. This is our chance to give back and influence the future of our beloved chapter. As this effort gets underway, please keep an eye out for opportunities to assist and contact us if you identify areas where you can contribute.

I've thought a good deal about what joining Delta Chi did for me as a student and after. Unquestionably, it had an indelible impact on my college experience, as I'm sure it did for you. I learned lessons and built friendships that are still with me today. I look back through the lens of who I am today, as a professional and as a father of a son who sees a great opportunity to make the experience better for future Arizona Delta Chis.

We must offer more support, mentorship, and meaningful connections with alumni. We will cultivate an improved, formalized alumni network to share and grow together. This is an opportunity for a fresh start - one that offers the unique chance to redefine and reimagine our fraternity.

In closing, I would like to thank everyone who has helped get us to where we are now, especially my fellow members of the TDCAB. Their heroic efforts are what has made this possible.

ITB,
Justin Brown

Introducing the Tucson Delta Chi Alumni Board

What is the Tucson Delta Chi Alumni Board (TDCAB)? The TDCAB is a housing corporation that owns and manages our crown jewel at 1701 East First Street. They hold titles on the land and building. This ensures that with the proper leadership and alumni support the property will remain an asset of Arizona Delta Chi in perpetuity. Not many chapters in Tucson can relate and those that can do not own such quality real estate. This envious position is due to the generosity and foresight of Senator Dugald Stanley "Douglas" Holsclaw.

The TDCAB is a non-profit corporation registered in the state of Arizona. The current board is composed of Justin Brown, Terry Scali, Chad Becker, Jason Wawro, and Grady Hicks. This current roster came into being in late 2020 and has remained exceptionally busy over the past year. Their focus over the past year covers a broad spectrum of areas that required urgent attention - building maintenance, tenant relations, alumni communications, insurance coverage, and financial management. They are committed to transparency and you are encouraged to contact them with any questions or concerns.

Once the undergraduate colony establishes itself there will be a need for an Alumni Board of Trustees (ABT). This group will be tasked with assisting with the operations of the chapter and will operate independently from the TDCAB. Until then, the TDCAB proudly serves as your Arizona Delta Chi conduit.

Call to Action!

As undergrads we all experienced the power and influence of Arizona Delta Chi, we need to replicate this away from campus. The call to action is simple - reconnect with your brothers. On page 8 you will find a portfolio of new and curated social media sights. Your duty is to allocate 10 minutes and engage with your brothers on social media. Like, follow, and bookmark these sites. Most importantly, please bookmark our official website at ArizonaDeltaChi.org and submit your latest contact information. The sites referenced on page 8 are sanctioned sites and are the means in which TDCAB, ABT, and the future undergrad chapter will connect, communicate, and collaborate. Please connect as we are on the cusp of something that is not only long overdue, but something that is worthy of our prestigious chapter. ITB.

Delta Chi Announces a Career Network

Delta Chi exists to promote friendship in its members. As we make our way back onto the University of Arizona campus, we want to provide alumni and our future undergraduate members with different and meaningful ways to make the most of their Delta Chi experiences.

New to our chapter is a specially-designed career network, which provides an incredible opportunity for undergraduate members to pursue their career aspirations and leverage the involvement of chapter alumni. The career network features three primary ways for members to advance their career goals.

Career Planning - It's a continually growing library of career development articles and videos on areas from identifying hard and soft skills to writing compelling resumes to winning job interviews. Included are workshops and panel discussions featuring alumni, who describe their career journeys, promote their industries and specialties, and share keen advice.

Job Board - It's a listing of available internships and full-time positions, posted for chapter members. If your company is looking for its next great hire, post a job at no cost. If you're looking for a great job, post your resume for consideration.

Alumni Guidance - We're using an online platform that connects alumni with undergraduate members in conversations to learn about career success, specific industries, leadership tips, and advice on next steps.

Go to the Careers section on our chapter website at <https://www.arizonadeltachi.org/careers> to access everything available in our private career network. Tip: use `azdeltachicareers!` to enter the career network.

What are they Doing Now?

Bill Brandt '65

Bill Brandt '65 is the owner of Brandt Cattle Co., a family-owned and operated ranch based in Brawley, California. Brandt Cattle Company has established their company on sustainability - which is the driving force in the way they operate the ranch and promote a healthy environment. In 1972 Bill's dad wanted to retire, and over time he improved his father's feed yard to continue raising cattle. When his dad owned the yard, it included around 1,200 heads of cattle. Today, Bill is proud to have expanded the Brandt Cattle Co., to about 140,000 heads.

Bill graduated from Brawley Union High School in 1963 and decided to continue his academic career at the University of Arizona. Despite not knowing many people due to the fact that he was born out of state, he found a second home in Delta Chi.

Bill was initiated in 1965 and says he was immediately surrounded by such a diverse group of people who instantly clicked together. Bill's accomplishments and contributions have been recognized as he was the recipient of the 2009 University of Arizona College of Agriculture and Life Science Alumni Achievement Award and the Brawley Chamber of Commerce 2010 Branding Iron award.

Bill is married to his wife, Sue 51 years and has three sons and two daughters. His legacy at Brandt Cattle has continued through his sons and now contributes to the company. His son Eric owns One World Beef, a meat processing plant, while Mark manages the family farming operations.

Both personally and academically, Bill's brothers in Delta Chi gave him the support system he needed to pursue his degree. He feels extraordinarily blessed to have had the experience that he did with the Arizona chapter. He still remains in touch with his brothers today.

Todd Hartley '91

I had the perfect college experience because of the brotherhood I developed at the Arizona Chapter of the Delta Chi Fraternity. I only had sisters in my family, so the opportunity to live in the Delta Chi house was eye-opening. I went through college with a bunch of extraordinary guys and am extremely close with many of them today. We still chat during every Wildcat game.

While on campus, I held several elected positions including treasurer, alumni secretary, rush chairman and pledge class president. I studied marketing and sociology at the UofA.

I'm one of Tony Robbins' Business Mastery Faculty Speakers and an owner of an award winning marketing agency. Each position I held at Delta Chi provided valuable life experiences. For example, leading rush is really just a sales leadership job. The alumni secretary job is like a long term relationship development position and the treasurer experience taught me how to manage an organization's books long before I opened my own agency. Maybe I wouldn't have taken on the business ownership risk if I didn't have the Delta Chi experience. For every undergrad reading this, you are 100% in charge of what your future is going to look like. Need an example? If you develop daily rituals to strengthen your weaknesses, your life will be an inspiration to everyone around you. Rooting for you!
